1. Moorings may not be laid in the Port of St Helier or any of the Outlying Harbours without the express permission of the Harbour Master, his authorized officers, or a recognised association with the authority or delegated authority to regulate such moorings.
2. Moorings in St Helier will normally be restricted to the Old Harbour, the area off the old lifeboat station between Old South Pier and Victoria Pier, and the holding moorings for Elizabeth Marina. In the Outlying Harbours, the Minquiers and the Écréhous, moorings may be laid anywhere within the areas designated as the harbour limits. Moorings may be dropped over the winter period to prevent damage.
3. Ground chains and clump blocks/dead men may be encountered within areas where mooring areas are assigned; Mariners are warned to exercise caution when drying out or anchoring in these areas.
