If an application is not made to renew the registration of a ship within the three months following the period of validity of its registration, the ship ceases to be registered. Once a ship has ceased to be registered and the owner wishes it to be reinstated, it will be subject to full registration procedures, including name approval and the full registration fee will be charged.

Cheques should be drawn on a British bank and made payable to 'Ports of Jersey'. Credit cards are accepted.

Please send to: The Registrar of British Ships, New North Quay House, New North Quay, St Helier, JE2 3ND, Jersey.
